Join us on a Sour Trip into beer alchemy. This cheeky psychedelic number takes ingredients from the dairy, the orchard, tropical plantations, the barley farms of NSW and ancient yoghurt culture and whacks them in the Badlands Smoothie blender. The result? Smooth & fruity, tart and boozy. Best enjoyed with The Beatles circa Revolver while reading Burroughs, Ginsberg or Kerouac.

Badlands is using six hops in this “whack you over the head with hops stuffed in a soft pillow of a beer”. Turn the page to release Talus, Idaho 7, Amarillo and Experimental hop with the catchy name - “#09326” onto your tastebuds. Citrus aromas of candied orange, tangerine and pineapple explode into grapefruit, herbs and tropical fruits, white grape and rose. A melange of fruit, and herbs with a soft low bitterness and silky smooth mouthfeel.
